Vermont Expo

Please join us at the Vermont Historical Expo on June 16 & 17 at the Tunbridge Fairgrounds to learn about Vermont's participation in the Civil War. Numerous (150) Vermont Historical Societies - like ours - will have booths displaying their specific histories. Buried in Fayston are 23 soldiers who were part of the VT Regiment that fought at Cedar Creek and Pickett's Charge. Fayston pictures and memorabilia will be displayed.

Carpooling

The booth workers are carpooling, but have to leave really early. If you are looking to carpool, you can contact Peggy Stokes at 496-2170 and we'll try to put it together!

Needed

We have a "person" - a stuffed, life-sized person - sitting in the single chair that hangs in the Fayston Town Hall. Due to the size of this "person" (very large feet, hands and head), s/he is difficult to dress using tight Bogner pants. We are accepting any vintage donations to help dress this stylish person!

A Bit of History

This is the shield that Vermonters wore into battle. It looks damaged because it was retrieved from a fallen soldier. The words reflect the fact that Vermonters were always first - on the frontline!

Vermonters were called Hemlocks because they had a sprig of hemlock when they went to fight.

Time for Renewal!

We value your membership! If you haven't already renewed or joined this year, please take a moment to fill out this form and return it with your contribution to Ave Haviland ~ P.O. Box 1207 ~ Waitsfield, VT 05673.
